Al Graham, Camden Group & John Hinman, MRB arrived at 7:15 pm

Mr. Hinman discussed with the Board the different projects they are currently working on for the sewer plant and combining the Village and Town of Pembroke grants for the UV lighting systems that are a requirement of the DEC.

Mr. Hinman presented the Board with cost estimates on the potential project of Darien connecting to the sewer system. The Board reviewed and discussed the specs, it was addressed that more information is needed from Town of Darien before updating the estimates. Deputy Mayor Doktor will reach out to the Town of Darien Supervisor for this information needed and Mr. Hinman will update and email estimate to the Board.

Mr. Hinman was asked by the Board to look into Solar Energy projects.

Mr. Hinman left the meeting at 8:15 pm.

Sewer Update:

- Mr. Waff informed the Board that the Contractors working on the Town of Pembroke plant has left GFI wires hanging free.
- Koester has been working on the control panel; apparently, they had the wrong transformer
- Mr. Waff informed the Board the electrical panel has to be moved.

Miscellaneous

- Mr. Waff made notice that the now that the weather is better, at of April 1st the gate needs to be locked.
- Mr. Waff advised the Police department that the lockers in the Police Garage are to be moved the first week in April as they are blocking the electrical panel.
- Village Elections will be held, Tuesday, March 15, 2022, noon-9pm
